

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

For such a momentous and important event for the Irish forestry sector, Pro Silva Ireland gratefully acknowledges the following for their support, expertise and goodwill

- DAFM for their financial support and efforts to help us host this meeting and record key presentations as a legacy of this important event. Film and podcasts of the meeting are currently in production
- All delegates for their participation
- Minister Pippa Hackett for attending and opening the meeting
- The forest owners who generously provided their forests for valuable in-forest discussion
- The hard-working, voluntary Pro Silva Ireland committee
- Meeting coordinator and Pro Silva Ireland's administrator, Olive Leavy
- President Eckart Senitza and the international Pro Silva committee for their support
- All presenters for their preparations and presentations
- Owners, managers, and staff at all our host forests for their hard work in preparing the sites
- Marina Conway, Ray O'Foglu, Brian Murphy and Eckart Senitza for participating in the panel discussion on Day 3
- Those involved in preparing, designing, printing and producing all presentation materials
- Sean Garvey and his team at ATU for designing and producing the beautiful wooden gifts
- Crannog Media with Chris Hayes and Alan Boland
- Photographer Ness Keeley
- Donal Magner of the Irish Farmers Journal
- The staff at The Glenview Hotel
- Bolgers od Avoca Coaches
- All management and staff at The Glenmalure Lodge, Tipi Adventures, and The Bridge Tavern
- Glendalough Distillery
- The amazing Pro Silva 'house band', Manus, Sean, Jonathan and Séan, and all the guest musicians
- All our suppliers and service providers