

COURSES IN CONTINUOUS COVER FOREST MANAGEMENT*IRREGULAR SILVICULTURE IN IRELAND & BRITAIN:
TRANSFORMATION IN PRACTICE*Follow-up one-day course in Ireland
Wednesday 18th September 2024

This course is just for those who have attended the Transformation in Practice course at Stourhead in England. It is designed as a follow-up course to put the theory and practical application of irregular silviculture into an Irish context. The course is a 1-day course looking at the transformation of even-aged plantations to irregular high forest using some of the best examples of transformation in Ireland as a backdrop.
